

2022: Year of Connection | Year in Cultural Data

Arts for the Aging’s therapeutic, multidisciplinary arts programs reached 20 clients at 40 locations; engaged 756 older adults and 148 professional and family caregivers; and were facilitated by a faculty of 28 professional teaching artists. The virtual exhibition Weaving Words and Movement into Art was awarded an Arts in Health 3rd Honorable Mention in the Arts for Innovation category from the National Organization of Arts in Health (NOAH).

Program Statistics

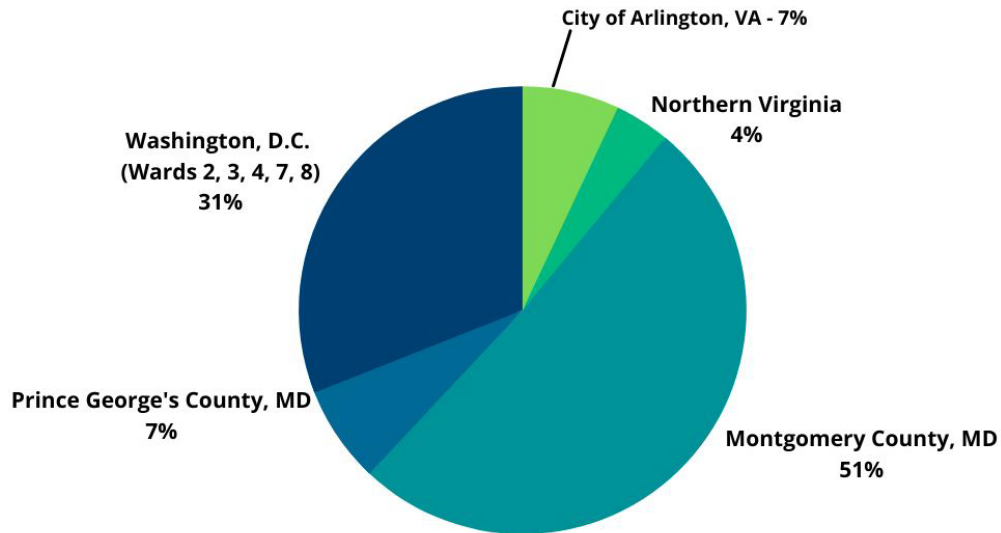

2022 Program Impact

Impact Reach in the Greater Washington D.C. Area

Participant Statistics

70% of clients responded with self-reported data

